

Happy New 2011 "Year of the Pig" from Fibber McGee's!

The Closet Chronicles
Fibber McGee's Newsletter - January February & March 2011 Issue

Happy New Year to everybody out there in Fibberland! There's certainly plenty of new things cook'in with us, that's for sure! Our new Traegger pig is grill is smoking up tender sweet yummy goodness all week long down at Fibber's. Like so many people, if you enjoy the flavorful outer edges of a prime rib, then you'll love that same savory taste and effect all the way through each and every delicious bite. Even the turkey we cook for our sandwiches and various meats we use on our menu have all gone to the Pig! Hoof it on down and pig out with us.... You'll be glad you did! Our kitchen hours have been extended to midnight on Friday & Saturday for appetizers to keep you and your friends going, or a scrumptious late night meal with the works for full fledged satisfaction. If you've been laying low after the holiday hoopla, go easy on yourself and your budget for the Superbowl and join Chandy and the gang for some game time fun with a killer complimentary spread and $2.00 Coors Light! And exactly when's the last time you were out on a Monday night? Sink into a cozy booth and snuggle up with your sweetheart on Valentine's Day. We'll have something really special in The Closet for you to enjoy among with your good ole' comfort food faves! Spring will be here before you know it and we look forward to seeing you at our Anniversary Party on Sunday, March 13th. The pig will be doin the jig to live music so come out and join us! Of course St. Patricks is our busiest day of the year by far and needs no mention so we'll C U @ Fibber's!
