The Closet Chronicles

Fibber McGee's Newsletter - October November December 2007 Issue

Check it out!! Fibber's very own website has officially been launched into cyberspace so hop on-line and scope it out! You're just a click away from all the action that is going on at any given time, in one slick venue. Besides pertinent informational tidbits, our page is fully loaded with everything you need to know at one quick glance, like our enticing featured edible selections, uplifting specialty elixers, live music line-up, our newsletter The Closet Chronicles, current events or road trip dates, and an absolutely awesome photo gallery. And how cool is this? Ask your server about how you can get fun photos of you and all of your friends in Fibberland onto our website's photo gallery too! The Fishing Derby also made news since our last issue and Gary is forcing me to report that he caught the biggest fish this year. Nevermind that the derby was fixed (hardee harr)... Darrell, Jake, Ryan the birthday boy, Steve, and Marshall all had an angling good time, particularly at happy hour headquarters! Afterall, that is one of the best things about being fishermen (or shall we say fisher-people?) isn't it? Considering the magnitude of what we are about to tell you next, is a perfect example of why you need to log-on to our website often to stay informed because you'd hate to miss out on what we've got up our sleeve this time! Not only have we taken over cyberspace, but we're invading Candlestick (can't call it Monster) park in SanFrancisco for our inaugural NFL journey, arriving Fibber's-style in a posh Limbusine on Sunday, November 18th to root the 49ers vs the Rams. $135 includes it all...a sweet ride, tickets to the game, plus abundant fan-fuel along the way. Tickets are on sale now so get'em while they last! Your demands for the popular Saturday afternoon quickie bus to Chuckchansi has been heard loud and clear so we'll announce details for another very soon. Keep yourself plugged into Fibber McGee's since you never know what new and exciting event we'll announce next. Get on the blog doo!

Fib Blurbs

Now that www.fibbermcgeesfresno.com is up and running you can take the opportunity to help our planet by viewing The Closet Chronicles in a paperless format via our website. Our newsletter publication coincides with the seasons and is circulated on the 1st of every month in January, April, July & October but you can use the "contact us" section to let us know that you'd rather view The Closet Chronicles right from your PC and we'll remove you from our paperized mailing list; thus doing your part to reduce paper production, harmful toner products, and reduced fossil fuel emissions with less handling by conventional mail carriers. You can also use the "contact us" section to update birthdays or to sign up additional newsletter recipients, give us feedback... anything you'd like us to know really! It's super easy so have some super fun with your friends in both the real Fibberland and cyber one!!

The Tiger Woods of the sports fishing world can lookout for lil' Lindsay Harris who recently landed her very first whopper of a fish! By the time she starts signing up, there's no tellin how much more angling experience she'll have acquired so hang on to your waders Fibber Fishing Derby participants of the future!

Congratulations to Dui & Gnee (translated Dewey & Jeanie for those not in the know) on the birth of their baby Cylis. In a world full of copy cats, this family is definitely an original!

As time marches on, we regret to report losses of those near and dear to Fibber's along the way. Mac McGuffick & Larry Vannatta will be deeply missed and our sincere condolences go out to their surviving loved ones. Feel better really soon "Aunt Rosie" of Merced!

Trick or Treat? Our infamous Halloween costume galas will resume when the calendar shifts towards the weekends once again.

Happy Birthday
